Dear Manoj Jhalani

You may be aware that the Department of Electronics and IT (DeitY) has launched a Digital Literacy Mission known as "Digital Saksharta Abhiyan (Disha)". Under this scheme, one person from each household in each State/UT would be trained in two levels of digital literacy, which would enable the beneficiaries of use IT and related applications to enhance their livelihood and participate effectively in the democratic process.

2. The nodal agency for this scheme is CSC e-Governance Services India Limited set up by Government of India as a Special Purpose Vehicle (SPV). The DeitY has desired that ASHAs should be trained as part of the digital literacy initiative as this training will enable ASHAs to participate in e-Governance services and use IT more effectively in their work. All expenses in this regard would be met from the "Digital Saksharta Abhiyan" Programme.

3. The CSC team will coordinate with you regarding the modalities and roll out of the training. You are requested to facilitate the training of ASHAs across all districts in coordination with CSC.

With regards,

Yours Sincerely

(Manoj Jhalani)
